Foreword

A school year is a thing to be treasured in the minds of people young and old, so we have a book showing you our accomplishments, along with a pictorial record of the year. The staff has tried to capture some of the memories of your school life which you will cherish through the years to come.

We hope that the annual will prove a satisfaction to all who read its pages. With this purpose in mind, we present to you your own school annual—The Trinhian of 1947.

Dedication

To one who has devoted his time and patience to the students of Trinity High School, whose enthusiasm and interest in sports have made Trinity more athletic minded and to one who has gained in our affections a high regard for his personal traits and interests both in and outside the classroom, in appreciation, we, the Senior class, dedicate the Trinhian to Coach Millard Coble.

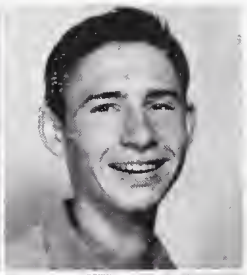
Class Flower: White Carnation.

Class Colors: Blue and Gold.

Class Motto: Tomorrow we launch; where shall we anchor?

LUCILLE ALBERTSON

Courteous and sweet that's Lucille; for this reason, she has countless friends.



ROLAND ALBERTSON

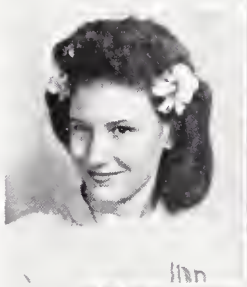
"Merk" is the name known to many throughout the school, so what will Trinity Hi be like without his alluring smile and great sense of humor.

IRENE BIGGS

Sweet, cute, and attractive, but brother how she is a favorite with all of us.

DORIS BOST

Her character, which could never be copied, has won her lots of friends.



HAZEL BOWLES

Another senior brunette, who never talks much unless it's a worthwhile theme to entertain her listeners.

ANNIE FRANCES BREWER

Seldom do you see her without a friendly smile. She has just received an Orange Blossom Diamond from a certain lucky fellow.

JACKIE BULLA

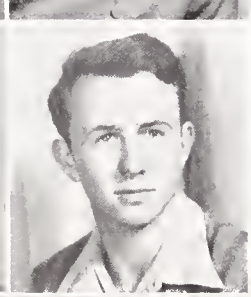
Her striking appearance, and friendly way makes her smile live with us for many a day.

EVELYN CRAVEN

Attractive and polite, Evelyn is a very informed person about office affairs.

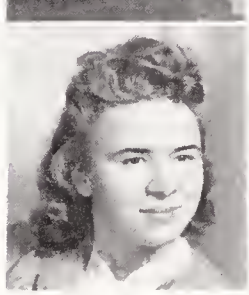
BETTY ZANE COLLINS

Cute, sweet, and neat, "listen to those sighs." Another thing boys she's certainly a cure for sore eyes.



MARVIN COOPER

Sincere, dependable, and willing; Marvin is capable of helping out in anything he is called on to do.



NANCY CROKER

Nancy possesses plenty of wit. Her participation in sports is widely known.

COLLEEN CROTTS

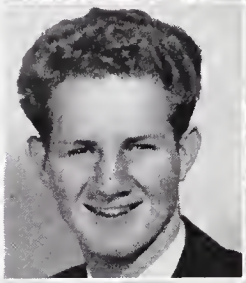
Never let it be said that Colleen is not a senior preference; because her distinct disposition has made it true.

JACK CROUSE

Envy of the boys, admired by the class, he's the "heart throb" of most any lass.

JACKIE DAVIS

She has a kind word for everyone, and she will be on your list, too, as soon as you meet her.



HERMAN DEATON

Herman is a person whom we all admire, a husband at that, but what care have we when he begins to preside over our class business.

NANCY FARLOW

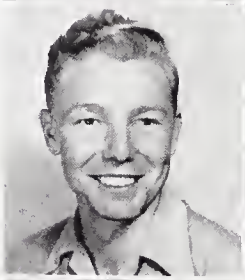
Out of the entire forty-eight Nancy's one of the most dependable of her senior classmates.

LOUISE FRAZIER

A friendly person in every way, a girl who will help you any day.

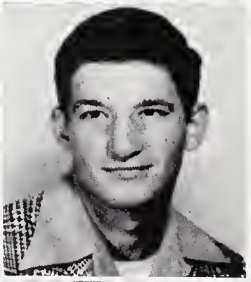
RAYMOND GROSS

Smartly groomed and very unique, he is a likable person if you happen to meet.



JACK HALL

Crosby wouldn't have a job very long if he once heard Jack sing, for his ability to sing is outstanding.

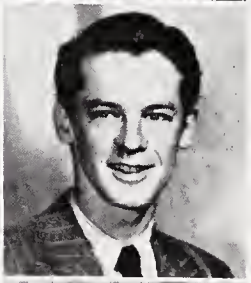


JACK HAYWORTH

Jack's friendly smile is very helpful when it seems the whole world is against you.

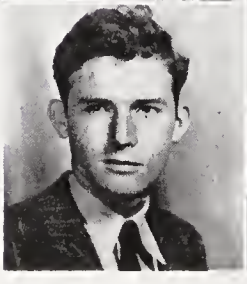
FRANCES HITE

An adorable girl, very cute, and nice to "boot."



BILLY KENT HUGHES

Kent is full of thoughts, wit, and life; lots of pep and plenty of strife.



LEO HUGHES

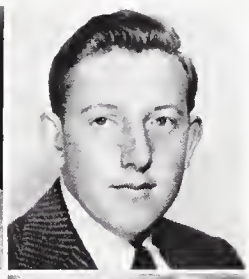
The senior father, we might say, because he is the proud papa of a boy. He is a very nice person and one of our ex-servicemen.

WANDA KENNEDY

Definitely a care-free person who also wears a sparkler for that certain someone.

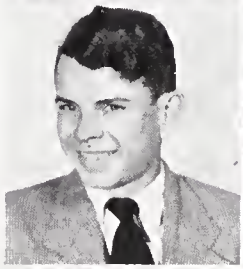
FRED LAMBETH

Fred's ability to participate in all kinds of athletics, as well as other things has made him well known throughout the school.



GLENN LEACH

"Bad-eye" as he is known by his friends, is widely admired.



ODELL LEDWELL

His winning smile gains the confidence of the girls as well as people in general.

LUNARY LOVE

A senior blond who possesses much influence.

BETTY JO MCDOWELL

Greeting everyone with a smile, Betty truly has a lovable personality, which accounts for her being the best all 'round girl.

FLORENCE MANESS

A very studious and unique person, but that doesn't keep her from having a host of friends.

RUTH MILLER

Ruth's ability to "beat it out" on the 88 keys has made her many friends and her influence scoreless.

MARTHA CAROL MITCHELL

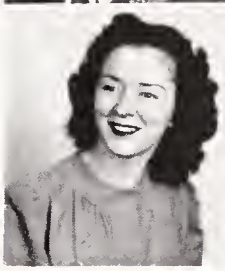
This tall brunette is striking and elegant. She has certain ideals no one can trace.

J. T. MITCHELL

He is small in height that's true, but he is so amazing, too.

CLEMENTINE MONROE

A wonder woman to her followers. (They wonder what kind of task her will-power will do next.)

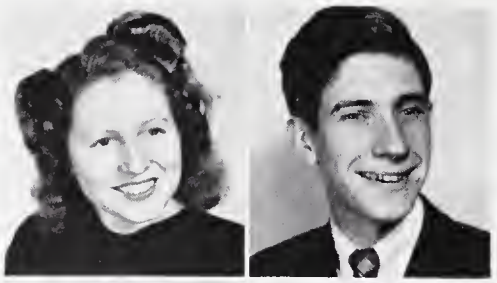


BILLIE NEWTON

Billie's originality has made her distinctly known throughout this school.

HUDSON NANCE

Neat in appearance from toe to his head, which goes double for what was just said.

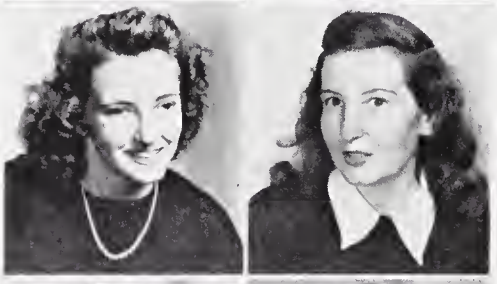


MARJORIE NICHOLS

Different in every respect which makes her a favorite of many.

BOBBY PAYNE

Witty as Hope, cute as can be, he's the most adorable person you will ever see.

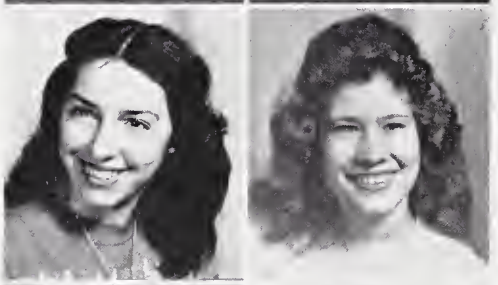


MARY AGNES PERRY

Witty and short we all know, but what would we do without her humorous glow?

DORIS PUGH

Gentle and sincere is the type of person we need, which of course makes Doris the most likely to succeed.

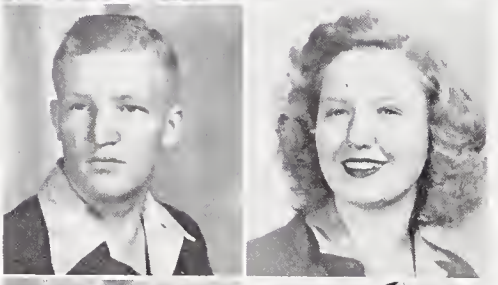


BETTY SEWARD

"Sweet and lovely, sweeter than the roses in May" you can be her friend too, if you'll only say.

BILLIE SIMPSON

She is the dream girl of a certain boy overseas, but what about the boys left behind? (They can dream can't they?)



GILBERT SKEEN

His unique manner makes him the boy most likely to succeed.

MARY LOU SNIDER

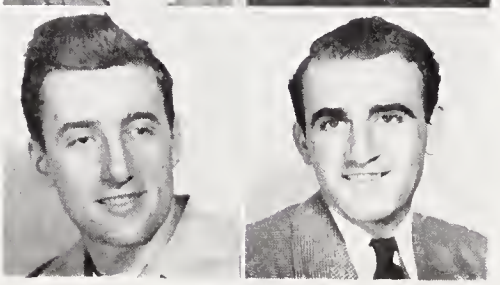
Sweet and neat, hard to beat, she is a girl that's certainly a treat.

MAE TAYLOR

Short, cute, and neat, but a "keepsake" has already been given to her by the Navy.

ELIZABETH ANN TUTTLE

Cute and sweet, merry and neat, you'll find "Lib" hard to beat.



JAMES WALL

James' unusual mood and his delight for sports have gained him the confidence of many.

DAVID WARREN

Dark, tall, and handsome, David's never to be forgotten appearance is extremely necessary to our well being. He's the "Como" of T.H.S.

CLASS HISTORY

September 9, 1943 had a very special meaning to the seventy-two boys and girls who entered the home rooms of Mrs. Washburn, Mrs. Abernathy and Miss Nunn. This was our first year in high school and it proved to be a very exciting venture. As soon as we became accustomed to this change from elementary to high school we selected the following officers: President, Carlton Clinard; Vice-President, Irene Biggs; Secretary, Jackie Bulla, and Treasurer, James Wall.

The next year we were Sophomores and we were divided between the rooms of Mrs. Ivey and Mrs. Clodfelter. We elected as officers: President, Carlton Clinard; Vice-President, Irene Biggs; Secretary, Jackie Rush; and Treasurer, Doris Allen. The biggest event of the year was the Sophomore-Senior Banquet held March the 30th, at the Emerywood Country Club.

The fall of '45 came and found us Juniors and entering the room of Mrs. Gurney Peace. We also had a new principal, Mr. L. H. Koon, replacing Mr. Abernathy. As officers we elected President, Herman Deaton; Secretary, Jackie Bulla; and Treasurer, Betty Jo McDowell. During the fall we enjoyed a wiener roast on the school campus. Betty Jo McDowell, our class representative, won the title "Harvest Queen." Stationery, magazines and Christmas cards were sold by the class. Christmas came and Mrs. Peace gave us a party at the Home Economics Building. Perhaps the happiest day of all the year was February 6th, the day our class rings arrived. A play "The Girl From Missouri," with the cast from our class, was presented in the spring.

August 29, 1946 found fifty-one boys and girls again entering Mrs. Peace's room but this time as Seniors. We found that we had several new members, two former students, Irene Biggs and Clementine Monroe, and five veterans of World War II. They were: Jack Hall, Jack Hayworth, Leo Hughes, David Warren, and James Peele. We re-elected Herman Deaton, Jackie Bulla, Betty Jo McDowell as President, Secretary, and Treasurer respectively. Jack Hall was elected as Vice-President. On September 28th, forty-three seniors accompanied by Mr. Koon and Mr. and Mrs. Coble enjoyed a trip to Chapel Hill as guests of the school on the annual "High School Senior Day." During the year we sold stationery and flavoring. Christmas came and the class again enjoyed a party at the Home Economics Building with Mrs. Peace as hostess. The Annual Staff was selected and pictures made for the annual. Many members of the class were active in sports, playing football, basketball, and baseball. During the year three students left leaving thirty girls and eighteen boys to finish the year. We are very proud of Mae Taylor who has a perfect attendance record for thirteen years.

Now, with our class flower, white carnation; our colors, blue and gold; and our motto "Tomorrow we launch—where shall we anchor?" We are looking forward to a happy and successful future and to a happy reunion at our annual alumni meetings.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I sat by the fire last night I was thinking of my high school days. Everything was quiet and soon I fell asleep and dreamed a most peculiar dream.

It was the year of 1957 and as I sat at the huge desk in Lawyer Brown's office I was thinking of my school days at Trinity High. At once I had a great desire to return there and see if it had changed as had the other towns. I made a plane reservation and when I reached the airport, much to my surprise, I found Odell Ledwell to be the pilot of the plane I was to take.

I landed at the Trinity Municipal Airport and met the director Billy Kent Hughes and his private secretary Mae Taylor. From there I went to the hotel and found Marvin Cooper to be the manager; Billie Newton, receptionist; and Doris Bost, dietitian and believe it or not they say the cooking is being done with radar.

After a brief stay in my room I decided to visit the high school. I found that Roland Albertson was athletic director, Ruth Miller, music director, and Lucille Albertson, Florence Maness, Louise Frazier, and Raymond Gross teachers.

Trinity has grown to be quite a town. The large department store on Main Street is under the management of Gilbert Skeen and his office workers are Doris Pugh, Hazel Bowles and Marjorie Nichols. I also visited a beauty shop named "Be More Beautiful" and its directors were Frances Hite and Billie Simpson who, I understand are using Atomic power to run their machines.

The latest addition to the growing town of Trinity is the hospital. As I visited there I met the superintendent of nurses, Jacqueline Davis. She informed me that her most competent nurses were Lunary Love, Mary Agnes Perry and Wanda Kennedy. I also met the chief of staff who was none other than Dr. David Warren and he told me that the best dentist was Jack Hayworth and that his nurse was Betty Zane Collins.

As I left the hospital I saw someone walking toward me whom at first I didn't recognize but I soon saw that it was Elizabeth Ann Tuttle, a reporter for the Trinity Times. She told me that James Wall was with the St. Louis Cards, that Betty Seward was a model in New York and that Jack Crouse was in Hollywood starring in Clementine Monroe's latest novel, "The Searching Breeze." She also informed me that Glenn Leach and J. T. Mitchell were lawyers and that the politician, Hudson Nance, is planning to run for senator next term. I also learned that Bobby Payne was director of the Loan Company and his slogan was "Let Payne Pay Your Bills."

I then visited the radio station and found Leo Hughes to be the director and Herman Deaton the sole male announcer. It seems as if the female voices are better. The announcers are: Annie Frances Brewer, Mary Lou Snider, Nancy Croker, and Colleen Crotts. I heard that Jack Hall has taken Crosby's place and that he is going to New York to appear with the promising opera star Jackie Bulla.

A new venture has been started, it is a day nursery under the management of Betty Jo McDowell and Carol Mitchell. I understand it is progressing nicely.

I went back to my room and as I looked through the paper I read articles by the beauty expert, Irene Biggs, the food expert, Evelyn Craven, and the sports writer, Fred Lambeth.

Then I waked with a start and realized it was only a dream and that it was 1947 and not 1957 and that we must wait ten long years to see if any of this could be true.

Beta Club

The Beta Club is a very helpful and active organization.

During the year, the Beta Club sponsor was changed. Miss Carrie Cranford, leaving for other work, was succeeded by Mr. Welborn, ninth grade teacher. He is proving very helpful to the club toward promoting co-operation, honesty, service, and leadership.

The club meets one night each month at the home of a member. A program and business session are followed by a social hour. All being planned by the host or hostess. Three of the most important and helpful projects are:

(1) The care of the library—The members are assigned to work at the desk each period of the day. They also assist in other duties such as mending books, taking inventory, filing clippings, and checking the shelves.

(2) The Honor Roll—Two members are in charge of putting names of the honor students on the Honor Roll Poster after each grading period.

(3) The Bulldog Flash—The Beta Club is sponsoring the school paper, "The Bulldog Flash." Everyone in high school is co-operating with Charles Snider, the editor, and we are looking forward to a larger and better paper later on.

Another oustanding event of the Beta Club is the Beta Club convention. This year on March 21-22, the convention will be held in Winston-Salem, N. C., at the Robert E. Lee Hotel. All chapters and their sponsors are invited to attend.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this organization shall be the promotion of the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership among high school students.

Harvest Festival

The annual Harvest Festival and Popularity contest was held in the high school auditorium on Friday night, November 22.

Mr. Welborn served as Master of Ceremonies and crowned Kings and Queens as follows:

High School—Ann Newton and Donald Mikles.

Grammar Grades—Gladys Seward and Charles Fletcher.

Primary Grades—Betty Jarrett and Linwood English.

The Glee Club entertained us with spiritual music, followed by a negro skit given by: Louise Frazier, Charles Snider, and Lloyd Canoy.

A cake sale and box supper were conducted by Robert Reid Mendenhall, an auctioneer and former student. Games were played in the various rooms.

A chicken supper preceded the program.

Last but not least, "The Womanless Wedding" was a sight. Our boys really did a swell job.

We made a profit of $1,650. Many thanks to all who helped to make our Harvest Festival a success.

Basketball

Due to the excellent coaching of Mrs. Millard Coble, we have played some good games, even though we didn't always win. The year of '47 has started with a bang and we have two victories to our credit. Teamwork and co-operation have been two of our greatest assets. We are looking forward to the tournament and expect to win.
